

Two hundred twenty-five years ago, the Hudson River Valley was the major theater of the Revolutionary War, what George Washington referred to as the “Key to Victory.” Each year through 2008, the region will observe Patriots’ Weekend to commemorate and celebrate the War for American Independence. Patriots’ Weekend, 2005 will highlight the 225th Anniversary of Major General Benedict Arnold’s plot to betray Fortress West Point (1780) and the capture, trial, and execution of British Major John André.

Patriots’ Weekend Schedule of Events

Events are free and open to the public. Please make your reservations for the conference by calling (845) 575-3052 or writing to HRVI@marist.edu..
