

John B. Flannagan

Dates: 1895-1942

Residency: Fargo, North Dakota. New York City. Woodstock, NY.

Bio: Born in Fargo, North Dakota. He attended the Minneapolis Institute of Arts. He was part of the National Sculpture Society, he was a member of the Society of Independent Artists, the Woodstock Art Association, and was part of the WPA/Federal Arts Project. He worked with drawing, painting, and was a direct carver in all different mediums. He is known for his abstract work and his early 20th century modernist paintings.