Objective- Using the painting “Pic-Nic on the Hudson,” students will better appreciate Rossiter’s works and understand why and how he painted this picture the way he did, as well as the people involved in the painting and the importance they hold.

Pre-Lesson- Students will take note of the important dates in Rossiter’s life and from there construct their own timelines for each child to refer to.

Lesson- There will be a field trip to Cold Spring. The students will sit by the Hudson and take note of its beauty. They will write down anything they find important, interesting, or beautiful. They will be shown “Pic-Nic on the Hudson” and will study the painting.
Lesson Plan Cont.

• Lesson (cont.)- The class will then be split into 4 groups and each group will discuss and write down important info. about the painting (location, who’s in the painting, etc.). The students will be asked to construct a dialogue for the people in the painting. They will make a conversation of what they think those people would be talking about. After, they will put on a play for their class on the dialogue they made.

• Post-Lesson- The students will be asked to find another painting by Rossiter with their group, then they will write on what they think the painting is about.

• Assessment- Informal. Students will hand in their post-lesson work.
