
Towns in the Hudson Valley

a photographic essay
by Patricia Beringer and Howard Dratch

PATRICIA BERINGER

Claverack, New York, c. 1812.

Claverack: The first courthouse in New York State, erected 1788. Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr tried cases here; Martin Van Buren was admitted to the bar here. Court moved to Hudson in 1805.

HOWARD DRATCH

PATRICIA BERINGER

Claverack: Robert Fulton house, erected by William Henry Ludlow, c. 1783.

Claverack: Dutch Reformed Church, c. 1769.

HOWARD DRATCH

Claverack: Dutch house, c. 1760.

PATRICIA BERINGER

HOWARD DRATCH

Hudson: 82 Warren Street, c. 1824.

PATRICIA BERINGER

Claverack: Residence built c. 1856, now "The Good Earth Farm".

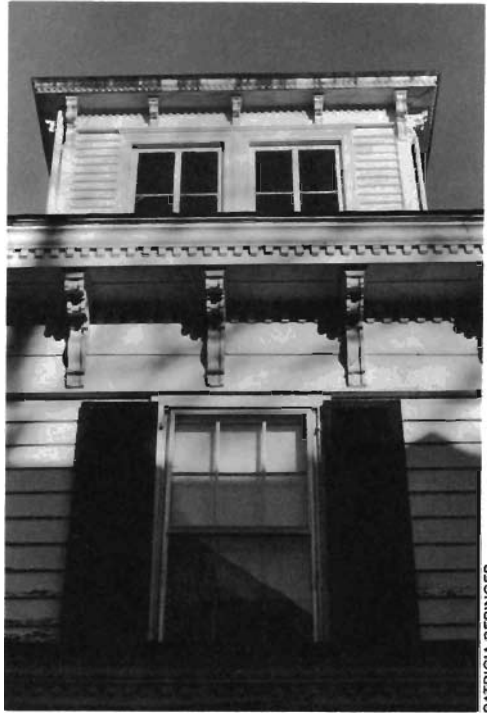

HOWARD DRATCH

Hudson, New York.

HOWARD DRATCH

Hudson: J.W. Edmonds Hose Co. #1, the oldest active volunteer fire company in New York State, organized 17 April 1794.

PATRICIA BERINGER

*Windham: Wedding cake house.
Residence of George Robertson.*

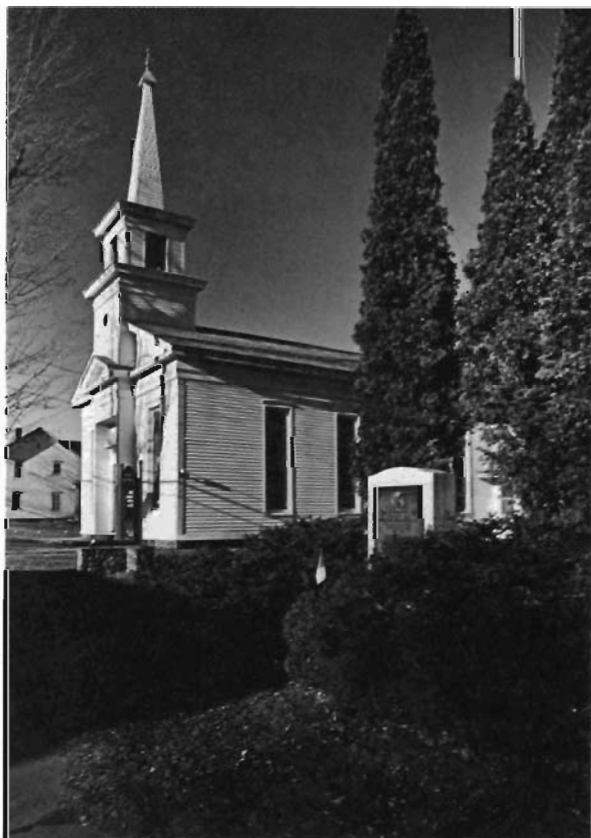

PATRICIA BERINGER

Hudson: Greek Revival residence, Front Street.

PATRICIA BERINGER

Hudson: Warren & Front Streets from the Promenade. Federal and Victorian architecture, c. 1810-1850.

HOWARD DRATCH

Windham: Oak Hill.

HOWARD DRATCH

Sundial, Windham, New York.

PATRICIA BERINGER

Bearsville, New York.

Doorways

HOWARD DRATCH

119 Warren Street, Hudson. Late Victorian, c. 1885.

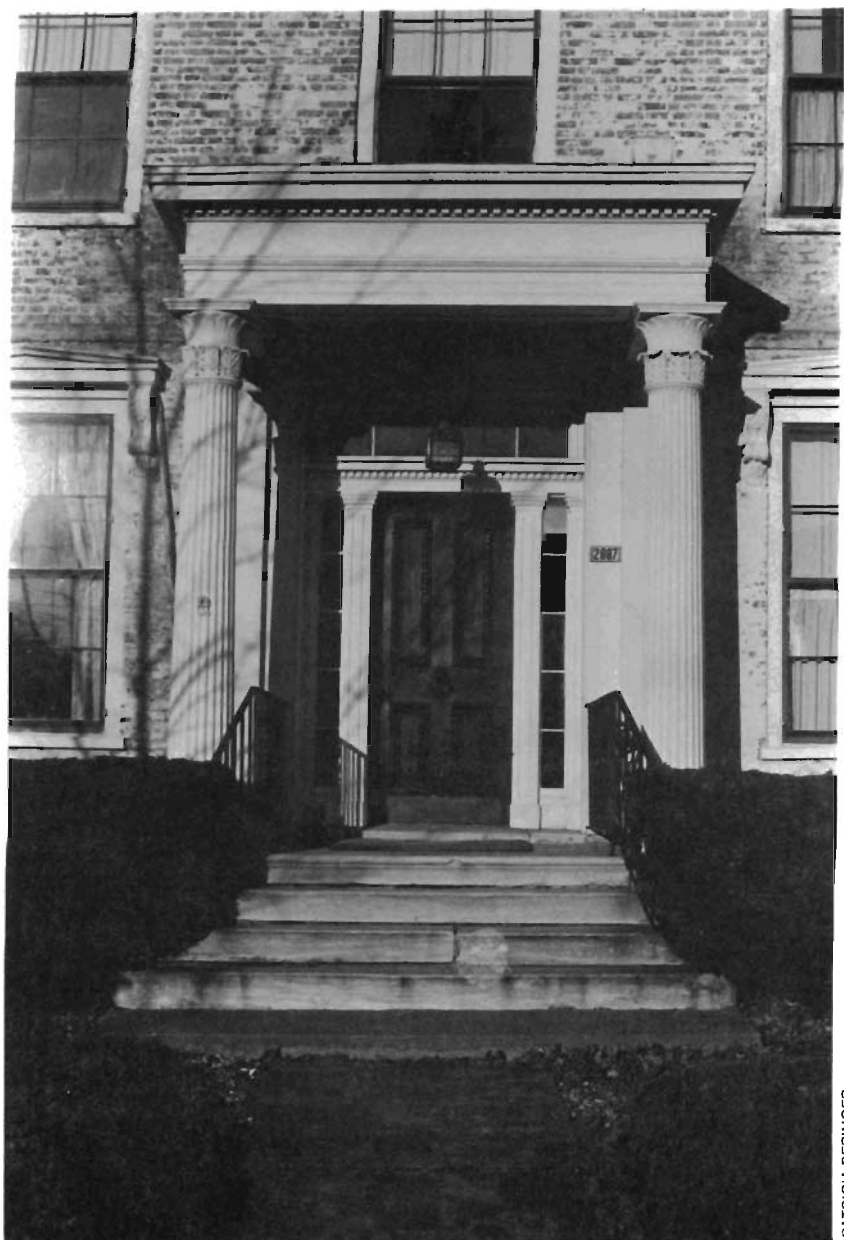

PATRICIA BERINGER

82 Warren Street, Hudson. Greek Revival, c. 1824.

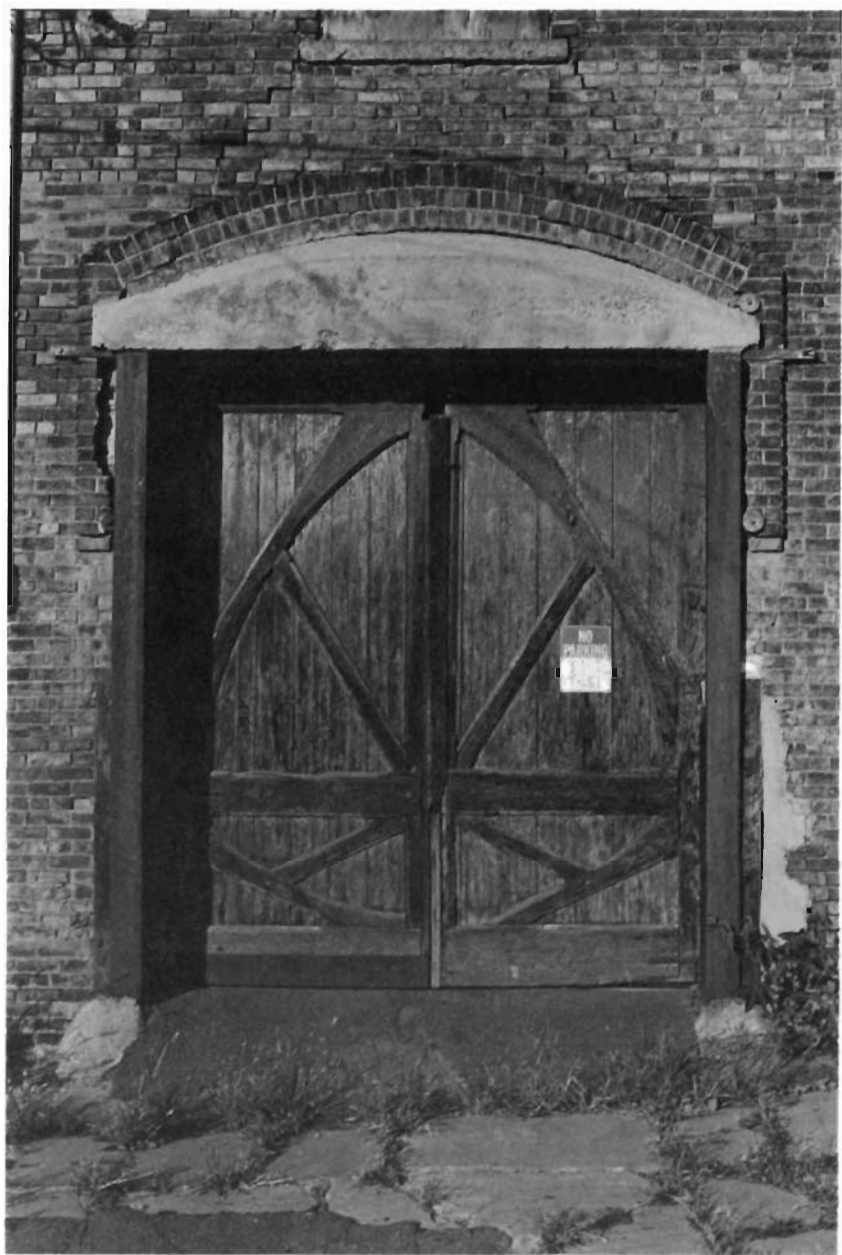

PATRICIA BERINGER

26 Warren Street, Hudson. Federal, c. 1810.

PATRICIA BERINGER

First courthouse in New York, Claverack, c. 1788.

HOWARD DRAATCH

Front Street, Hudson.