To the Inhabitants of the City of New York.

GENTLEMEN,

MR. FRANKS returns his sincere thanks to his Friends and the Public, for their kind and liberal encouragement towards his publication of the New-York Directory; he humbly requests they may indulgently excuse any errors, inaccuracies, or omissions, which may appear, and impute them only to the local disadvantages he laboured under, in this first attempt; as he intends in the future editions, he shall have the honour of annually presenting them, to have it more in his power to be exact, correct, and circumstantial; as the number of subscribers are but few (which he attributes to a want of knowledge of the utility of this production, it being the first of the kind ever attempted in this city;) he makes bold to call on the citizens at large, for every information, that they think will prove conducive to its future correctness. Their directions will be thankfully received and gratefully acknowledged by Mr. Franks, at his lodgings, No. 66, Broad-way, or at Mr. Kollock's Printing-Office.

N. B. Mr. Franks has ready for Publication, a Treatise of BOOK-KEEPING, digested for the inland and foreign Trade of America.—This Work, which he hopes will prove very useful, he would willingly submit, previous to his putting it to press, to the inspection of the Gentlemen of the Mercantile Line, and will consider himself much honoured if they favour him with their patronage, as he intends laying it before them at their respective residences.

The New York Directory, will, in future, be published every twentieth day of May in each Year.
BEGS Leave to return his sincere thanks to his friends and the public, for their past favors, and hopes the cheapness of the following will continue him their favors:

- Drawing a Lease and Release on Parchment, £1 14 0
- Ditto, ditto, ditto, on Paper, 1 8 0
- Ditto, a Bond, 0 8 0
- Ditto, a Power of Attorney, 0 14 0

Mr. Franks having served a regular apprenticeship to his father, a very eminent attorney in Dublin, and having, besides, tranacted business, for some years, for Counselor Franklin of said city, he hopes, will entitle him to the countenance of the Gentlemen of the Law Department in this metropolis; to merit whose esteem and approbation will be his particular study,—he will thankfully receive business from them on the most reasonable terms.

N. B. To prevent complaints, generally arising from employing inexperienced Clerks, Mr. Franks has lately engaged a young man from Dublin, of unexceptionable abilities.
