Thesis

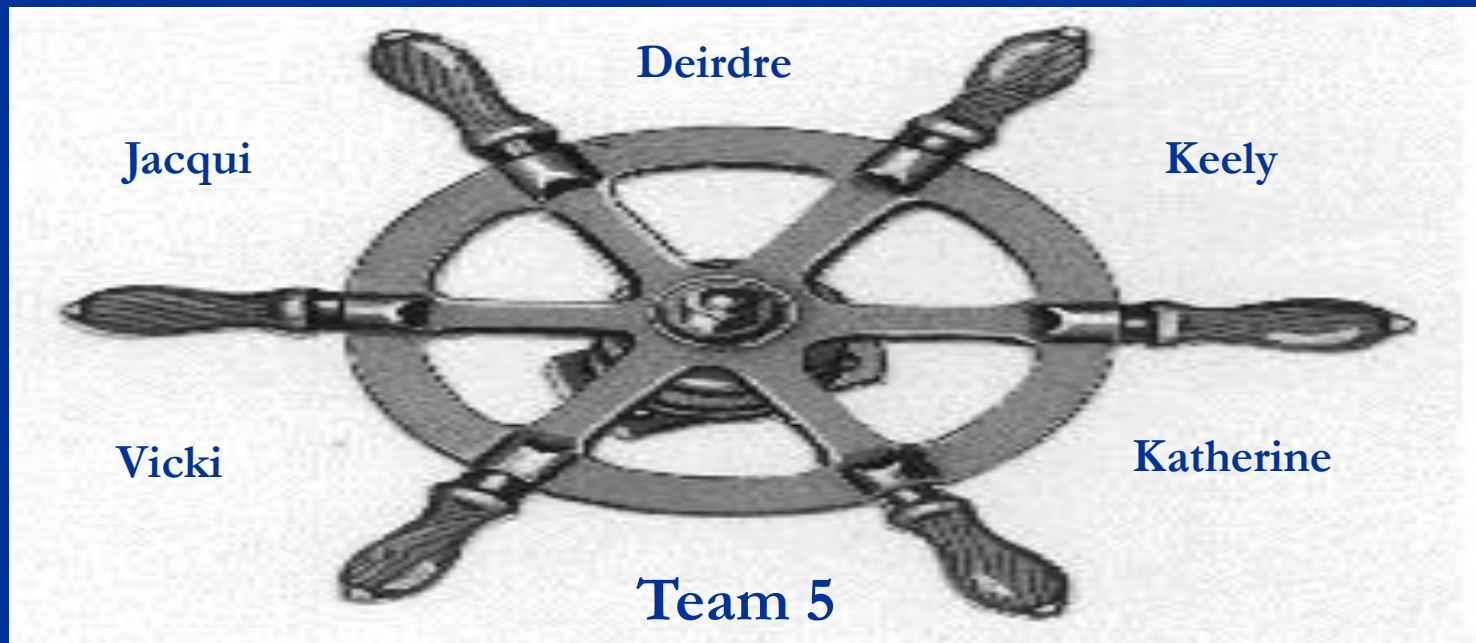

Newburgh is a potentially “pleasant place” because of recent and future restorations to it’s economy, community, and waterfront.

Newburgh

THE EXPLORERS

We want a new face for our “Pleasant Place”

Where did It begin?

Where did it go wrong?

- Newburgh is significant in the Hudson River Valley because it's history, economics, and social development are tied to the use of the river.

- History

- Henry Hudson- First European to explore as far north as Newburgh (1609) called Newburgh “ a pleasant place to build a town”

- Economics

- Factory closings
 - Current status- economic despair- 25.8% of the population below the poverty line

- Social- Current status

- Population: 28,500
 - Median Household Income: $30,332.
 - Ethnicity: No longer a minority or majority population
